

SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

The Municipality of Grosse Ile uses social media, namely Facebook, as a means to diversify access to public information.

Content

By subscribing to our account (liking our Facebook page), you have access concerning the services and activities within the Municipality.

Comments and moderation

The words expressed are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the position of the Municipality. Moreover, to prevent spreading inappropriate messages, the Municipality reserves the right to censor the author of anything that is not related to the publications, is not signed or that violates this policy.

To this effect, no comments encouraging users to disclose or adhere to any content or to encourage a massive spreading of inappropriate publications will be tolerated. For example, it could be invitations to sign a petition or to click «I like», to adhere to chain letters or any other inappropriate publication. The Municipality reserves the right to erase these comments.

Otherwise, the Municipality encourages their subscribers to engage in civilized and respectful conversations and to be polite when making comments about their publications. Comments which are insulting, obscene or abusive as well as those which are discriminatory will not be tolerated nor will those which provoke hatred or violence. The Municipality therefore reserves the right to erase these types of comments and to block access to their authors.

Moreover, the subscribers must be aware that their comments publicized on the Municipality's social media are archived and remain public and permanent.

Responses to questions and comments

The Municipality animates their social media based on business hours and does not undertake to answer exhaustively to questions and comments.

Reference to other websites

The Municipality's social media may sometimes propose links to other websites for information purposes only. The Municipality does not guarantee the accuracy of the information posted on these sites.

Subscribers

The Municipality of Grosse Ile reserves the right to block or delete subscribers who do not respect their terms of use. The fact that an internet user subscribes to the Municipality's social media does not mean that we grant him any security whatsoever.
